Your Answer to How High Is Up, Saturday

With their spirits and hopes higher than the kites they will fly, Carmel's school youngsters are putting the finishing touches on their original creations, because this Saturday is Carmel's thirty-third annual Kite Day Festival.

When the great event was originated, three decades ago, by the Rev. Willis G. White, the children marched in a body, to the 'grazing country' in Hatton Fields. Town Marshal Gus England headed the parade, with Mayor Herbert setting a swinging stride up the hill.

This year contestants will assemble on the Junior High School athletic field at 1:30 o'clock, with William G. Wakefield, recreation director of the Carmel Unified School District, Grand Marshal.

There will be three age groups for children, plus an adult group.

Prizes for kite flyers, age eight years and younger, will be 1st prize for kite flying 200 feet; 2nd prize, for best workmanship; 3rd prize for the prettiest kite.

For kite flyers, nine to 12 years old: 1st prize, for high flying; 2nd prize, for best workmanship and 3rd prize for the prettiest kite.

Rules for kite flyers, 13 to 15 years old and for adults, are the same as for the nine to 12 years age group.

There will be an Ernest Calley prize award for the champion and a Willis G. White award for the best kite of international design.

All kites must be original and hand-made. Entries are open to Carmelites of all ages.

No. 46

If the world seems all against you, and the weather isn't right; if the way that someone paints you makes you want to hiss and fight; if your dearest one rejects you and elaborates your faults — maybe Spring is what affects you, and you need a dose of salts.

Or if television taunts you, and commercials ring no bell; or some indiscretion haunts you with a nauseating smell; when your closest buddies scorn you as you tread the poignant path, maybe Spring is here to warn you — now's the time to take that bath!

Let us then be up and doing, or at least get out of bed, 'ere the crowding years accruing find us frail and underfed. Time is short and life is shorter — not for us to linger here — do some things you hadn't ought-a — Patrick's Day and Spring is near!

Business Assoc. Dinner Meeting March 19

The quarterly dinner meeting of the Carmel Business Association will be held next Thursday evening at 7 o'clock in the Terrace Room of La Playa Hotel.

Special guests of the evening, Dr. Remsen Bird and the Most Rev. Harry A. Clinch, D. D. Aux. Bishop, Monterey-Fresno, will discuss the Flanders Canyon project.

Also on the agenda for discussion is the possible participation of the Assn. in the Carmel Motel Assn. plan to promote Christmas buying in Carmel shops.

Miss Rosemary Miller was appointed executive secretary of the Association on March 1. New telephone numbers are 624-2727 and 624-2930.

Personal Appearances Set for Young Authors

During next week there will be a display of original books authored by children in Mrs. Claire Duggou's first grade class at River School Cafeteria which may be viewed daily from 10:00-11:30.

The idea of individual authorship of stories was recently given impetus in Carmel by the visit of Dr. R. Van Allen, author of "Learning to Read Through Experience." The philosophy behind having children write or dictate their own reading material, according to Dr. Van Allen, is this very simple definition of a child's reading process: "What I can think about, I can talk about. What I can say, I can write. What I can write, I can read. I can read what I can write and what other people can write for me to read." Armed with this philosophy, a youngster moves easily and rapidly into the reading process.

About half of the books which will be on display at River School were dictated to the teacher and the other half were written directly by the children themselves. In both cases the teacher typed the stories and put them into book form and the author illustrated them. The children will be on hand during the display to show their books to the classes and visitors attending the fair.

Council Adopts Sunset Ballot Act

The Carmel city council last Tuesday night gave final reading to, and adopted, an ordinance placing the question of the purchase of Sunset School on the April 14 ballot.

The adjourned meeting of the council also gave first reading to an amendment of the city's hostelry tax ordinance and an ordinance permitting sidewalks to be narrowed to eight feet on a section of Junipero which is to be resurfaced before this summer.

A request by the Carmel Kiwanis Club for permission to hold a peanut sale on Memorial Day weekend was discussed at great length and produced the comment by Councilman Putnam that the peanut sale should be held on the same day the Lions Club sells brooms. The mayor was asked to explain the city's cleanup problem and suggest to the Kiwanians that they attempt some other type of activity.

The council also decided to inform the county board of supervisors that if it means the loss of the Superior Court session on the Peninsula, the city opposes the Laguna Grande site for the proposed county courthouse annex, but that otherwise the city takes no position.

Book Review Series Starts Tomorrow Night

The opening program of the book review series at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening at the Church of the Wayfarer will present a discussion of "Here I Raise Mine Ebenezer," by Mrs. Kemper Campbell, with Dr. K. Fillmore Gray giving the review. After the review there will be a social hour with coffee and dessert served.

This is the third year for the Church of the Wayfarer book reviews by Dr. Gray.

Series tickets for $2.50 will be on sale at the door.

Jackals in Paradise

All's right with the world.

The stock market is way up and looks like it's reaching for a new high. Taxes have been cut and paychecks are larger already. Even major league baseball shows signs of reviving, what with the importing of three Japanese players for tryouts.

There is, however, one dark spot. The spectacle of his former friends and associates ganging up on Sen. Clair Engle, like so many jackals upon a wounded fellow, must give even Democrats pause.

Wind IN THE Pines

BY DON MARSHALL

Seems the party of yachtsmen aboard the Argo, anchored this week in Stillwater Cove, brought their Southern California manners along. When asked by a newsman about the vessel, they couldn't have been more rude; even after they were told of the great interest on the part of Carmelites.

Edmund Spenser put it very well in Canto 3 of The Faerie Queene—"For a man by nothing is so well bewrayed, / As by his maners."

—o—

Friends of Plumber Jim Marquardt were distressed last week after news of the tragic plane crash at Lake Tahoe was known and Jim didn't appear Monday morning, having gone to the lake over the weekend.

But Jim is back on the scene now and Jim and friends are all happy.

—o—

Poor Duke Everts! He can't even be a jailbird. He was picked up a while ago and charged with cutting trees from somebody else's property. I understand he had lined up over 100 witnesses to testify as to the hue of his character, plus a similar number who would assert that he was nowhere near the place where he was supposed to have committed the deed.

Alas charges were dropped. Kinda frustratin'.

DOWN TO THE SEA

BY LES BOSSHARDT, Master Mariner

"I must go down to the seas again,
To the lonely sea and the sky." — MASEFIELD

SHAKERS TO KEEPERS—

The weather being what it was for the first four days of last week, pickings on the salmon front were slim indeed. Came Saturday and Sunday with weather that the boater and the fisherfolk love. Boats by the score took to the sea and were rewarded in a big way with a lot of big salmon. Frank Cefalu reports that he launched 25 boats from his hoist on wharf 2 the two days and these boats landed 52 salmon, mostly biggies. The largest being just under 25 pounds. This was the report from one place, I wonder how many fish were decked by the other boats Saturday and Sunday.

MONTEREY IN LOS ANGELES:

Captain Lou Ames, the local Marine Surveyor and publisher of books for boaters, had a booth at the Los Angeles boat show which closed a week's run last Sunday. Without any fanfare or expense to anyone but himself, the good captain displayed the relief map of the Marina and handed out some 3,000 pictorial descriptive folders of this area to patrons of the show. Lou says the interest in the Marina and the historical features of this area was great and many expressed the wish that they may see the Monterey Bay area, come vacation time. Looks as if the city of Monterey owes this skipper a thank you.

M.P.Y.C. SCUTTLEBUT:

Heard some murmurings that would indicate the Monterey Peninsula Yacht Club will soon be building a spanking new clubhouse some place on No. 2 Wharf. It would seem it is about time that this fine group of Corinthians would have a nice club. Good luck hearties.

YESTERYEAR ON THE FRONT:

Captain Bill Hastings, who sells boats for Woodward Brokerage, Inc. of Moss Landing, dropped in we of the Pilot House the other p.m. We, Bill and I, are on the ancient mariner side and of course the visit winds up in a gam about things nautical of some year past. Bill was in the old steam schooners for some time and the tales he tells about the schooners and the squareheads are something. If some writer is around doing nothing this Master Mariner could furnish him with enough material to produce a best seller.

NAUTICAL KNOW-HOW:

Shipmates, how long has it been since you took a long look at your compass and its errors? Remember, without a good compass and the knowledge of its errors you are putting safety on the line every time you leave your slip. If you don't know, don't go.

WEATHERWISE:

Weather conditions hereabout Wednesday, Thursday and Friday will be rather on the unstable side with possible heavy rains early Thursday and through Friday. Possible clearing Saturday and Sunday with high winds from the north of west both days. High winds meaning up to 30 knots in the afternoons.

M.P.C. Student Fund Gets Memorial Checks

Checks totalling nearly $100 have been received by Thomas F. Saake, MPC director of student services, "in memory" of the late Mrs. Adah A. Biehn, Saake said. These will be applied as the donors requested, to the loan fund, which is kept available for students needing financial help while attending the college.

After Mrs. Biehn's death in Pacific Grove Feb. 12, her family announced that anyone wishing to do so might send a donation to the MPC fund. The announcement was also made in Springer, N.M., apparently a former home of Mrs. Biehn.

"The college is most appreciative of these donations," Saake said. "We would welcome other such contributions in the future."

Carmel Red Cross Was Well Prepared For War

Article No. 2. History of the Carmel Red Cross, as it appeared in The Pine Cone, March 9, 1961. Written by Dorothy James and Helen Heavey.

The depression years were drawing to a close in the late thirties, however, the Carmel Chapter of the American Red Cross continued to have milk delivered to many needy families in Carmel.

The resignation of Miss Audrey Walton, Home Service Chairman was regretfully accepted in 1934 and the chapter board employed the first executive secretary, Miss Leslie King, a new employee, was paid $40 a month and instructed to "keep the Red Cross rooms (in the El Paseo Building) open from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. on week days and 10 a.m. to noon on Saturdays."

The Rescue Squad had completed their First Aid training under Colonel T. B. Taylor, and the chapter was requested to raise funds for the first ambulance in 1936. The negotiations for and the purchase of the first ambulance must have gone off smoothly, as there is no mention in the record of the transaction. The report of Colonel Taylor at the end of the first year of the ambulance's operation at the quarterly meeting on Oct. 14, 1938 gives the total cost at $1834.88, with added equipment $169.90, $190.99 for maintenance and insurance and $41.33 spent for gasoline and oil. Forty-seven calls had been made; ten of which were to automobile accidents.

Mrs. R. R. Wallace, chairman of the 1938 Roll Call, reported at the same meeting that the goal of $4300 was already oversubscribed with the amount collected to $4762. (Roll Call then being conducted during October.)

Forerunner of the Blood Program is the recorded request from the Peninsula Community Hospital for the chapter to cooperate in securing blood donors. A volunteer blood transfusion committee was formed in early 1939 with Byington Ford as its chairman. In this same year another familiar topic was brought up; that of the safety of the Carmel beach. "While no formal action was taken in is understood that the chapter will aid civic authorities without assuming responsibility."

War threat in Europe stepped up action in the little chapter in 1939 to the extent of forming an extensive disaster preparedness committee of some 40 persons. Colonel T. B. Taylor, chairman, had, as some of his top aides: Corum B. Jackson, E. H. Ewig, C. B. Burrows, Mrs. S. Trevwett and Dr. R. A. Kocher. Production for war relief was established under the leadership of Mrs John W. Dickinson. Surgical dressings and clothing were greatly needed in war-torn countries, and the chapter accepted a quota of $500 in materials to be made for that purpose," the chairman reported. Sixty-seven women had pledged their service in response to her plea for volunteer workers. Sub-committees were set up for knitting and sewing in addition to surgical dressings.

Mrs. Muriel Vandervilt Phelps was appointed a delegate to the Red Cross National Convention in Washington, D.C., where she discussed the work of the Carmel Valley Surgical Dressings Committee.

Another delegate, Doctor G. H. Taubles, chapter chairman, was made chairman of a round table discussion on annual roll call as conducted in a small chapter.

Zenas Potter, vice chairman of the chapter, was appointed Regional Director of Civilian Defense in September of 1941; Miss Anne Read to Camp and Hospital service at rapidly expanding Fort Ord; Miss K. S. Bier, chairman for Home Nursing; Colonel Taylor consented to resume chairmanship of the Big Sur and Los Laureles first Air Stations.

There is no doubt but that members of the little chapter by the sea were as prepared as anyone for the shattering blow of Pearl Harbor. Peter Mawdsley, who audited the accounts, reported $15,790.89 in funds on hand. This amount would soon be doubled as activities and services rapidly expanded. By 1944 the quota of $27,000 was over subscribed by half again that amount.

Distinguished Show At Laky Galleries

The 23 paintings and sketches by Herbert Lewis (1894-1962) currently on view in The Laky Galleries, San Carlos near Fifth in Carmel, afford the connoisseur a rare opportunity to study a cross-section of this truly prolific and versatile artist's work.

Lewis painted, literally, all his life. Starting with a meticulously executed, formalized drawing of a standing nude, through works of a distinct impressionist character and finally all the way to pure abstract images, the exhibit shows the artist's pilgrimage, his constant search for form and expression.

For many years Lewis roved, having at various times studios in Europe, in New York City and in his home town, Camden, Michigan. He knew poverty as well as fame. Many of his canvasses are in distinguished private collections. They are notable for their remarkable strength, purity of line and sensitivity.

The Laky Galleries are open 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily.

Yates Downes to Play Leading Role in 'The Boy With A Cart'

Yates Downes, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Downes, will play the title role in Christopher Fry's verse drama, "The Boy With a Cart," first production of All Saints Episcopal Church Parish Players, scheduled for two performances, April 10 and 11. Yates will be remembered for his appearance with Boris Karloff in "On Borrowed Time" in the Monterey Opera House and in Critic's Choice in the Golden Bough Circle Theater. He is a student at York School and an enthusiastic equestrian under the tutelage of Richard Collins at Pebble Beach.

Other members of the Parish Players production, now in rehearsal under the direction of Harry Rudenshiold, are Mrs. Robert White, as the mother of Cuthman; Mrs. John Converse as Bess; Mr. Converse as Matt; Miss Nancy Upjohn as Tawm's daughter; Mrs. F. The Sur Coast

By ELIZABETH FULLER JONES

A new resident to the Sur Coast, and in particular to Hurricane Point, which is mid-way between Bixby Canyon and the Little Sur River, is Arthur Porges, formerly of Chicago and Southern California.

Porges says of his decision to move to the rugged, breathtakingly beautiful coastal country, that "I gave up a well-paying job as a teacher of college mathematics, learned to drive a car—something I'd managed to avoid until now, being a confirmed hiker—and prepared myself psychologically for solitude, storms, raccoons, and the horrors of Highway 1. And I have no regrets."

Porges is an avid hiker and reader. He is an enthusiastic "borrower" from the Harrison Library, finds it "a superior institution" and enjoys an easy seven to ten miles a day, hiking, exploring in his new environs. He says of himself that when he can think of nothing better to do, he writes, for now writing is no longer just a hobby but his full-time occupation. What does he write? "None of it is literature, to be sure," he says of himself, "no Great American Novel, no sonnet-cycle, no five-volume biography of Napoleon —just detective stories and science fiction for magazines." If readers wish to know more of Porge's writing, look for the "Alfred Hitchcock Mystery Magazine," "Ellery Queen's Mystery Magazine," "Analog," "Argosy," "Fantasy & Science Fiction," "This Week," Longon Mystery Magazine," but the word from the author is "take my advice, and try 'Bleak House,' it's much better."

In the short while that Porges has lived in his new home, he has come to love his new surroundings, deeply. He knows that not everyone can leave an exceedingly busy daily routine, live alone and like it, but to him, the hours of solitude are vital; books and music are his full-time companions: they and the sea.

A Use Permit application submitted by Jess Draper of Palo Colorado Canyon is scheduled to come before the Monterey County Board of Supervisors in a public hearing, Monday, March 16 at 10:30 a.m., however, the parcel in question has recently been sold to one who intends "to keep it in the residential use for which it is intended." On Jan. 28 the Monterey County Planning Commission denied Draper's request to establish a 100-space public campground in the residential area, and subsequently it was appealed to the Board of Supervisors. In the earlier hearing residents and residential property owners in the area voiced their protest by letter and their presence at the hearing, expressing their belief that property values would be adversely affected if a campground were permitted in that residential area, and many many other reasons why they felt such a use should be denied.

Loet Vanderveen, Big Sur artist, potter and ceramist, and a regular contributor of his work at the Coast Gallery in Big Sur, will have an exhibit of his contemporary ceramics in Los Angeles during the next six weeks. The public is cordially invited to view these works of art at Jens Risom (California) Inc., 114 North Robertson Boulevard, Los Angeles from March 17 through April 30.

Plaudits for The Loewenguth Quartet

It isn't often that one can enjoy beautiful sound in an equally beautiful building. The Carmel Music Society presented an extra concert, the Loewenguth Quartet, in Monterey Presbyterian Church, last Thursday evening.

The program was rather lengthy and the compositions chosen all very demanding.

"Two Fantasies," by Purcell readily made one aware of a fine musically well-controlled quartet.

"Musica da camara," with The Loewenguth Quartet, was followed by "Quartet K 428 in E Flat" by Mozart. All four musicans turned in a fine performance, but here, as well as in the Beethoven "Quartet No. 8, Opus 59 No. 2 in E Minor," overall balance was not always closely watched; neither was individual excellence of technique and tone evident.

Non Bartokians had the opportunity to hear the intellect rather than the heart speak in "Quartet No. 3."

The Loewenguth Quartet played with an expressive sensitivity. A sprightly theme would develop only to be suddenly broken off with a pause of silence and then the wayward melody would be heard again, becoming more erratic. The minutiae were strikingly presented. A tremendous number of new sounds full of blaze and color were made audible rewarding listeners with an unforgettable experience.

Many compliments to the Carmel Music Society for making the Loewenguth Quartet presentation an actuality. —M.S.

Mausita Jennings

Profile of a Carmel Character

BY CAROLYN ELSTOB

On the last day of this month, the little Dutch door of weathered timber, at the southwest corner of Dolores and Sixth will be shorn of its two intriguing 'notices' — and closed for the last time by the Carmelite who has reigned in Carmel's tiniest adobe building for the past 13 years. On March 31, The Browse Around, more an institution than a shop will pass into memory and its owner, truly a Carmel character, will take with her, across the Atlantic, the affection and admiration of hundreds of our visitors as well as Carmelites of all ages.

From the day in 1951 that Mausita Jennings first opened her shop's door and thumb-tacked onto it the little card reading "Don't Pass Buy Here" there has been music in the air, in the heart of the Village.

The Browse Around started out as a record shop. It still is. But while the stock of platters is inexhaustible, there is another set of records on a wide shelf behind the counter, originated by Mausita, for Carmel.

In the four foot row of file boxes there are, literally, hundreds of indexed cards. They record Carmel's musical life and personalities of the past decade.

From Carmel's earliest days there have been just about as many musicians as painters and sculptors living along the sunny winding streets. Musicians are a gregarious lot. Groups were formed and concerts became as inevitable as art shows. Through the years duplication of dates grew to be a sore problem. There had to be a clearing house! It was Mausita Jennings who, making her personal contribution to the community, opened her "clearing house" in the Browse Around.

Mausita puts it this way. "Music has been not only my vocation, but my avocation. It has been a real pleasure being part of the community's cultural (musical) development; working on the Bach Festival Board and the Symphony Board and assisting wherever I could, with the Community Concert Association; the Carmel Music Society and the Golden Bough Theater." (Not only the Golden Bough Circle, but nearly all little theaters on the Peninsula have called upon the enthusiasm, know-how and generosity of the Browse Around's owner for sound effects, vital to their productions). For many years all music groups registered their dates and sold their tickets, left personal messages and 'consulted' in any sunny corner of Mausita's shop not crammed with customers and platters.

"My signature sign that I have always stuck on the door before dashing out for a sandwich (for the most part this has been a 'one-man' shop) reads "Bach in 1965—Offenbach Sooner." It made its first appearance 12 years ago . . . Dene Denny and Hazel Watrous, Noel Sullivan and other Bach Festival greats of those days are gone now . . . soon I will be thousands of miles away and The Browse Around will be no more: I don't know who will adopt my foolish little signs. Perhaps they will just become a memory of old Carmel.

Mausita Jennings of The Browse Around

"The Bach Festival has its own headquarters now and there is a splendidly functioning Central Box Office, so I leave my "clearing house" in good hands."

Tawny haired, blue-eyed Mausita Jennings was born Mausita Purple in Philadelphia, Penna. "My father had made up his mind I'd be a boy," she related, "Maybe he was mad in more ways than one when he viewed a shrieking daughter. Anyway he wouldn't settle for a sensible name so he gave me his name, Maus — my mother added ita and I was stuck with the amazing label, Mausita Purple."

As a teenager, Mausita looked forward to being a librarian. "But my first job was with the publishing house. I did every thing from helping to load trucks to writing advertising. I finally became manager of two branch offices and three newspapers, all under one banner. I studied piano and the theory of music at Sherman Institute in Los Angeles. Serving in the U.S.O. during World War II, I edged into a new phase of music. I played the accordian and was one of 50 players with the California Accordian Band of Los Angeles . . ."

There were many and various jobs before the versatile redhead reached Carmel.

"The Browse Around Music Shop had been established for some time before I took over from Leo Abinante who had operated it as a branch of his Monterey Music store.

"I found the 'business' angles, the factory fights for supremacy and the competitive battles, an unwalked swamp. Only the music of my wares kept my head above the clouds . . . Record speeds and materials changed, the public demand swirled. Tempos slowed and spiraled, from RPM's to PPM's . . . eventually stereo came along . . . I found that headaches were minimuzied by the 'glamour of the trade.'

"During the holiday season and particularly during Bach Festival seasons, celebrities of the world of music came in to the Browse Around. Thrilled as any teenager I gathered autographed records and (lucky me) I made many friends amongst the 'greats.' Certainly my signed platters as well as my precious memories will go with us on our travels.

"I cannot close the door of the Browse Around or its story," Mausita said, without paying the highest and sincerest tribute to those who have done so much for me, as assistants in my shop.

There was Miss Liesel Wurzmann, sculptor. She is now associated with the Wells Book Store. Little Jane Hexter is currently owner manager of the Central Box Office. Jerri Cardwell was a merry companion as well as an indefatigable 'saleslady.' Marcia Kuster Rider knew 'everybody' and everybody loved her. She 'retired' from the Browse Around in favor of motherhood. Now Philippa Hastings, bless her, promises to be with me until I walk through the little door and give the latch the final grace note. Philippa will, April 1, become a member of the Bach Festival office staff."

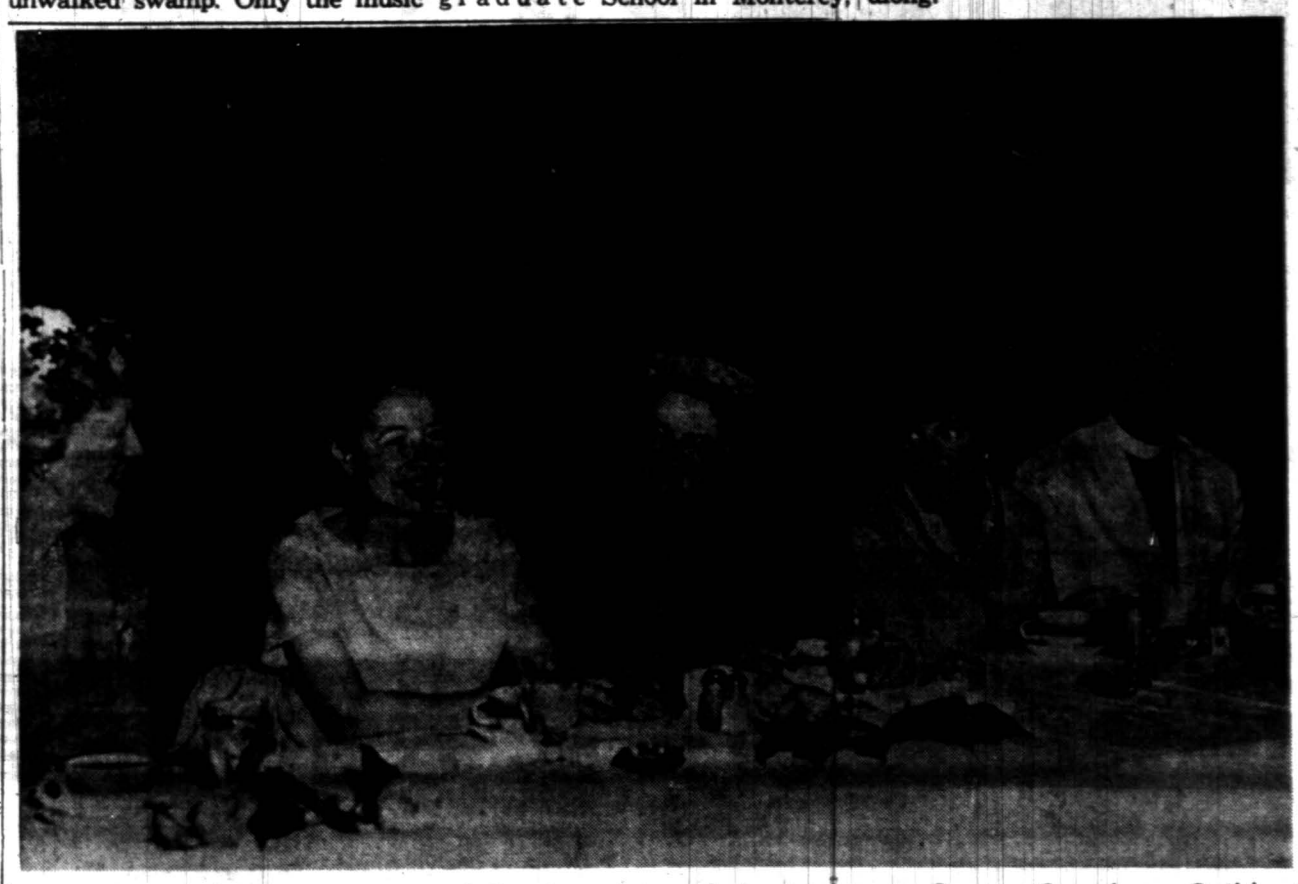

It must be obvious to everyone who knows Mausita Jennings that only a circumstance of major proportions would tempt her to close the doors of the Browse Around.

"The circumstance is not only artificially 'major' but very happy indeed," she beamed. "As the story has already been published most everybody knows that my husband, Walter, a professor of mathematics at the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School, has been awarded a Fulbright grant and will be teaching next year at Al-Mahikma University in Bagndad.

The Jennings will leave Carmel May 27 for Washington, D.C., where the professor will be briefed. "Then we will fly to Frankfort where we plan to pick up a Volkswagen and from then on we will 'vagabond,' Walter wants to show me his favorite spots in Europe where I've never been. We will arrive in Athens about Aug. 20 and then, depending upon the antics of the Cypriots, the Turks and the Greeks, we will (if they are "friends") take the crescent route to Istanbul and from there the Oriental Express to Baghdad. If there's a war going on we will fly from Athens direct to Baghdad."

Professor Jennings, who received his 20-year U.S. Navy Pin last January, served as a Lt. Comdr. in World War II and before coming to the Navy Postgraduate School in Monterey, taught at the Naval Academy at Annapolis.

Mausita is wide-eyed with anticipation when she talks of her house-keeping plans in Baghdad. "It gets as hot there at 120 degrees and bitterly cold," she said, "I'm told electric or even gas stoves are a rarity. I do know how to trim the wick of kerosene lamp, but I'm not sure what I do with vegetables (no frozen T.V. dinners in my future). Anyway, I'm a born optimist and I promise to send The Pine Cone all my new recipes, 'tho I can't guarantee to send the vegetables. If, and it's a big if—If Walter cheers my Baghdad menus, I'll make a 'platter' and send it along."

Mrs. Walter Jennings assures fellow members of the Monterey County Symphony Guild that she will be back 'in a year or so.' The luncheon for 100 Guild members and guests was held at Mark Thomas Inn last week. L to R: Guild president, Mrs. Frank Ringland; Guild Board members, Mrs. Edwin Carus, Mrs. Richard Lang and Rev. H. M. M. Nicholas.

MPVS Members Plan Spring Activities

Mrs. Charles M. Jett, President of MPVS opened the general meeting on Friday, by thanking Mrs. Carl Wageman and Mrs. David Richardson for their clever adaptation of a St. Patrick's Day theme to the Coffee Hour preceding the business meeting.

After the minutes of the February meeting were read by Mrs. C. E. Howland and letters of thanks for donations by the organization were read by the Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Ransom Lichty, Miss Ruth Blanchard, Finance Chairman, presented her report and submitted requests for assistance to the membership for their consideration and approval. A request from the Monterey Council for the Children's Home Society for profits earned at the Thrift Shop during the month of April was approved. Members of the Children's Home Society will solicit, sort, mark and assist in the sale of merchandise at the shop. A sum of $75 to cover the cost of five scholarships to the International World Council was approved and will be given to the World Affairs Council. Other requests for assistance were held over for membership vote at the April meeting.

Mrs. Mary T. Thomas, Thrift Shop Administrator, announced an Easter Parade to take place during the entire month of March at the MPVS Thrift Shop in Seaside. Mrs. A. Boyd Mewborn is collecting a wide variety of new and reconditioned clothing as well as household appurtenances which will be sold at a minimum of their value. Children's and men's clothing and accessories will be included in the sale, so it will be easy for the shopper to assemble complete outfits for her family.

Mrs. Charles H. Conley introduced Mrs. Roland W. Scheffler as Garden Tour Chairman and Mrs. Thomas Duncan as Chairman of the October Flea Market. Mrs. Lawrence Kinsler is serving as Garden Selections Chairman for the July tour.

The new Padre Junipero Serra National Medal, authorized last year to honor the 250th Anniversary of the Father of the California Missions, was released last week by the U.S. Mint, Philadelphia. President John F. Kennedy signed the Bill in October. By tragic coincidence, on November 24, the actual date of the Anniversary, the body of President Kennedy lay in state at the Capitol Building. In the same building, just a few yards away, stood the statue of Padre Serra then already chosen for the medal's design. The medal is now available in silver, bronze or platinum through the Old Mission, Santa Barbara.

Fr. Serra Medals Struck by Mint

The first Padre Serra National Medals have been shipped from the U.S. Mint in Philadelphia, Director of the Mint Eva Adams announced today.

These are of the commemorative issue honoring Padre Junipero Serra, O.F.M., the Spanish priest who founded the California Missions. Minting was authorized by Act of Congress in 1963—Serra's 250th Anniversary Year. It was proposed by bills of 33 members of the House of Representatives, and U.S. Senators Thomas F. Kuchel and Clair Engle of California.

President John F. Kennedy signed the Act, the first to so honor a Catholic priest, on Oct. 16.

On the actual date of the Anniversary of Serra's birth—November 24 — the Catholic President was dead. By tragic coincidence, on that day President Kennedy's body lay in state at the Capitol Rotunda, and just a few yards away stood the bronze statue of Serra, already chosen as the model for the medal's design.

Production of the medals at the Mint is sponsored by the Padre Junipero Serra 250th Anniversary Association ,a non-profit group. Congress provides no expense by the U.S. Government in such commemorative actions.

The medals are now available to the public from the Association, at the Old Mission in Santa Barbara.

The issue will be limited to 25 in platinum of proof finish, and 10,000 in silver (900F). Two thousand have been ordered in bronze (not limited) and others may beordered prior to Dec. 31 of this year, according to the law.

The Association has announced its hope that at least one Padre Serra National Medal can be struck in gold. "If so, it will be presented to His Holiness, Pope Paul VI," said spokesman Rev. Noel F. Moholy, O.F.M.

"It will show the esteem of the United States for this small and humble missionary who turned out to be a giant among western pioneers."

A movement toward canonization of Padre Serra is currently well along in its presentations to Rome. Father Moholy is Vice Postulator of Serra Cause, the fact-gathering group.

Those who wish may order Padre Serra National Medals, minted by the U.S. Mint, from the Association, Old Mission, Santa Barbara, California. The usual collector price for the national medals is platinum $500, silver $10, and bronze $2.50. They are shipped in mint condition, sealed in cellophane.

All proceeds will go to further work towards eventual canonization of Padre Junipero Serra. The medals are 1 5/16 inches in diameter, or slightly larger than a half dollar.

ORDINANCE NO. 97 C.S.

An ordinance calling a special Municipal Bond Election in the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea for the purpose of submitting to the electors of said city the measure of incurring a bonded indebtedness of said city for the acquisition of the following municipal improvement, to wit:

Acquisition for Community and Cultural Center:

declaring the estimated cost of said municipal improvement, the amount of the principal of said indebtedness to be incurred therefor, and the maximum rate of interest to be paid thereon; making provision for the levy and collection of taxes; fixing the date of said election, the manner of holding the same, providing for notice thereof, and consolidating said special municipal bond election with the General Municipal Election to be held on April 14, 1964.

WHEREAS, the City Council of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea (hereinafter sometimes called "the Council") by resolution duly passed and adopted at a meeting of the Council duly and regularly held, by affirmative vote of more than two-thirds of all its members, did determine that the public interest and necessity demand the acquisition of the municipal improvement hereinafter mentioned, and did further determine that the cost of said proposed municipal improvement will be too great to be paid out of the ordinary annual income and revenue of said municipality and that said municipal improvement will require an expenditure greater than the amount allowed therefor by the annual tax levy, and will require the incurring of a bonded indebtedness therefor, which resolution was duly entered on the minutes of said meeting of the Council, and is now on file and of record in the Clerk's office of said City; NOW, THEREFORE,

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. A special municipal bond election be and is hereby ordered and will be held in the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea (hereinafter called "the City") on Tuesday, April 14, 1964, at which election shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the City the question of incurring a bonded indebtedness of the City for the object and purpose set forth in the following measure, to wit:

Measure:
(Acquisition for Community and Cultural Center)

Shall the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea incur a bonded indebtedness in the principal amount of $575,000 for the acquisition for use as a municipal community and cultural center of the land and improvements located within said city commonly known as the Sunset School property, being all of blocks 97 and 110, Map of Carmel-by-the-Sea, including that portion of 9th Avenue lying between said blocks?

The estimated cost of the municipal improvement as set forth in said measure (including legal and all other fees incidental to or connected with the authorization, issuance and sale of the bonds evidencing the indebtedness proposed to be incurred for such municipal improvement and the costs of printing said bonds and all other costs and expenses incidental to or connected with the authorization, issuance and sale of said bonds) is the sum of $575,000 and the amount of the indebtedness proposed to be incurred for said municipal improvement is the sum of $575,000.

Section 2. The Council does hereby submit to the qualified electors of the City at said special municipal bond election said measure set forth in Section 1 of this ordinance, and designates and refers to said measure in the form of ballot hereinafter prescribed for use at said election.

(a) Said special municipal bond election shall be held and conducted, and the votes thereof canvassed, and the returns thereof made, and the result thereof ascertained and determined, as herein provided; and in all particulars not prescribed by this ordinance, said election shall be held as provided by law for the holding of municipal elections in the City.

(b) All persons qualified to vote at municipal elections in the City upon the date of the election herein provided for shall be qualified to vote upon the measure submitted at said special municipal bond election.

(c) The polls at the polling places hereinafter designated shall be opened at 7:00 o'clock A.M. of said day of election and shall be kept open continuously thereafter until 7:00 o'clock P.M. of said day of election, when the polls shall be closed (except as provided in Section 14436 of the Election Code), and the election officers shall thereupon proceed to canvass the ballots cast thereat.

(d) Said special municipal bond election hereby called shall be and is hereby consolidated with the General Municipal Election to be held in the City on April 14, 1964, all as required by and pursuant to law; and the election precincts, polling places and officers of election within the City for said special municipal bond election hereby called shall be the same as those selected and designated by the Council for said General Municipal Election by its Resolution No. 2138 entitled "RESOLUTION AND ORDER OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA DESIGNATING PRECINCTS AND POLLING PLACES AND APPOINTING MEMBERS OF PRECINCT BOARDS FOR GENERAL MUNICIPAL ELECTION TO BE HELD ON TUESDAY, APRIL 14, 1964, RATIFYING THE CITY CLERK'S PUBLICATION OF A NOTICE OF ELECTION, AND DIRECTING THE CITY CLERK TO PUBLISH A LIST OF ELECTION OFFICERS AND POLLING PLACES AND NOTICE OF NOMINEES FOR PUBLIC OFFICE AND MEASURE TO BE VOTED ON," passed and adopted on March 4, 1964, to which resolution reference is hereby specifically made for a designation of the precincts, polling places and election officers of the special municipal bond election hereby called.

(e) Only one form of ballot shall be used at said General Municipal Election and said special municipal bond election hereby consolidated therewith, which, in addition to all other matters required by law to be printed thereon, shall state the measure set forth in Section 1 hereof. Each voter to vote for said measure hereby submitted and for incurring said bonded indebtedness shall stamp a cross (x) in the blank space opposite the word "YES" on the ballot to the right of said measure, and to vote against said measure and against incurring said indebtedness shall stamp a cross (x) in the blank space opposite the word "NO" on the ballot to the right of said measure. On absent voter ballots the cross (x) may be marked with pen or pencil.

(f) The returns of said election shall be made out and signed by the election officers and shall be by them deposited with the City Clerk, together with the ballots cast at said election; and the Council shall meet at its usual meeting place and canvass said returns on Tuesday, the 21st day of April, 1964 (the first Tuesday after said election) at the hour of 8:00 o'clock P.M. and declare the result of said special municipal bond election and the result of said General Municipal Election.

Section 3. The Council proposes to issue and sell bonds of the City for the object and purpose, but not exceeding the amount, specified in said measure, if two-thirds of the qualified electors voting on such measure at said special municipal bond election shall vote in favor of said measure.

Said bonds shall be negotiable in form and of the character known as serial, and shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed six (6) per cent per annum, payable semi-annually (except that interest for the first year after the date of said bonds may be made payable at or before the end of said year). Provision is hereby made for the payment of the principal of and interest on said bonds as follows: At the time of making the general tax levy after incurring the bonded indebtedness, and annually thereafter until the bonds are paid or until there is a sum in the treasury set apart for that purpose sufficient to meet all payments of principal and interest on the bonds as they become due, the Council shall levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay the interest on the bonds and such part of the principal as will become due before the proceeds of a tax levied at the next general tax levy will be available; provided however, that if said bonds are authorized to be issued at said election, and it is expected that all or any part of said bonds will be sold at such time that the principal of or interest on such bonds will become due before the proceeds of a tax levied after such sale would be available to pay such principal or interest, the Council, at the time of fixing the annual tax levy, may levy a tax in an amount clearly sufficient to pay that portion of the principal of and interest on said bonds which it is expected will become due before the proceeds of the next succeeding tax levy will be available. If the earliest maturity of the bonds is more than one year after the date of issuance, the Council shall levy and collect annually a tax sufficient to pay the interest as it falls due and to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal on or before maturity. Such taxes shall be levied and collected as other City taxes and shall be in addition to all other taxes and shall be used only for payment of the bonds and the interest thereon.

Section 4. The City Clerk of the City is hereby directed, upon the passage and adoption of this ordinance, to publish the same once a week for two (2) weeks in the CARMEL PINE CONE, which is a newspaper of general circulation published less than six (6) days a week in the City, and such publication shall constitute notice of said election. No other notice of the election hereby called need be given.

Section 5. This ordinance shall be forthwith entered upon the minutes of the Council and in the Ordinance Book of the City. This ordinance, being an ordinance calling and ordering an election, shall take effect from and after its final passage and approval.

PASSED AND ADOPTED this 10th day of March, 1964,.

WHEN PEOPLE TALK . . . WE LISTEN!

And why not? They're telling us what they want, and we're finding it for them. They tell us too that we have the best listings they've seen, and we blush with pride. Actually we're only showing what they've asked for. Could that be because we do listen so carefully? They smile when we talk about sunken bathtubs at sunken prices, but we have a three bedroom, two bath beauty on an acre in Rancho Rio Vista which has been reduced to $44,500. Unique? It's even plumbed for a bidet! They laugh when we tell them about "Carmel Charm without Carmel Collapse," but that's exactly what this three bedroom, three bath charmer, nestled in a setting of oaks, is; and it's on a lot and a half South of Ocean, too, for just $39,500. We have others from $14,000 to $300,000. You must fit somewhere in that bracket.

WHY NOT DROP IN? WE'D LOVE TO LISTEN TO YOU.

TRANQUIL SUBURBAN SETTING, yet not far from the Village, this very attractive residence in an exclusive area exemplifies charm in detail, good design, and a room arrangement that takes advantage of a sunny exposure and view. Two bedrooms, den with fireplace, three baths, equipped kitchen, spacious dining area, and livingroom with view. Radiant heating system, heavy shake roof, ranch-type protected entry, terraced planting, ample paved driveway, and private fencing . . . all items that make this a VERY PLEASING HOME!

ATTENTION, LOVERS OF OLD CARMEL! It's a delight to show this example of architecture that represents building when stone and fine wood were combined with good craftsmanship. Recently restored to fine condition by owners who have had experience in this activity, all of the original atmosphere remains. A sheltered courtyard opens to a mahogany-paneled livingroom which features a friendly hearth, aged redwood ceiling, and heavy door with heavy hand-made hinges. The master bedroom with its corner fireplace can serve as a den; the second bedroom has access to a morning patio; the country kitchen includes a dining-area. The garage provides storage and work-bench space. This "special" property is one of few such residences available on today's market.

INCOME PROPERTY ON CARMEL LOT

The replacement value (but not the price) of these four, attractive, completely furnished, one-bedroom houses is in excess of $100,000. The income potential has never been fully tested. Over the years we've often been told, "If that property ever comes on the market, let me know immediately." But, as we knew the owner would never sell, we did'nt keep a list. However, his heirs do want to sell it, so it's on the open market at $85,000. Call us for an appointment to inspect.

Symphony a Colossal Success

The Tuesday evening concert of the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra under its Resident Conductor and Musical Director proved to be a smashing success. Appearing as guest artist was Bela Szilagi, pianist, who won a well deserved stormy applause from an appreciative audience.

The evening's world premiere of "Suite for Toy Piano in Five Movements," by John Cage, orchestrated by Lou Harrison opened the concert. Using its errectic melodies and peculiar sonorities in which the orchestra found no difficulty in expressing the composer's thoughts and so it was made public. Perhaps Mr. Cage stirred the public with some of his other musical ideas, but he was rather tame in expressing his innermost feelings in the above mentioned.

Debussy's triptych, "Nocturnes; Nuages, Fetes, Sirenes, wispily blended all string and woodwind and brass sections of the orchestra with great beauty. Every moment concretely pictorially framed. The orchestra excelled in shading Debussy's melodic motives of "Fetes" with the "Sirenes," then completing the composition with the women of two very fine vocal groups the Monterey Peninsula College Community Chorus and the Santa Catalina A Capella and Chorale. The wordless chant of the combined groups added delicate beauty, blending with the orchestra.

In their final number it seemed that Spring had seemingly sprung forth in Schuman's "Concerto in A Minor for Piano and Orchestra, Opus 54." Bela Szilagi was excellent. Ceaselessly he brought out the richness of color, the melodic inventiveness and the poetic content. Again the orchestra delicately spoke with the virtuoso. The young pianist played with clarity, taut control and jewel-like balance. Much more is soon to be heard of this talented young artist.

The sold-out audience is certainly continuing to fill Sunset Auditorium at every concert. This is an indication of the fine progress being made by the Orchestra. The diverse programming with the many young artists and the many challenging compositions using local groups can only be a reflection of the overall musical knowledge of our diligent conductor and musical director, John Gosling.

In California...
after bowling, beer is a natural

After you've bowled a game or two, or when you're winding up the evening at the neighborhood bowling center, it's good to relax with friends and compare scores. What better way to add to the sport and the sociableness than with a refreshing glass of beer? However you take your fun—skiing, skating, or at your ease in the game room—beer always makes a welcome addition to the party.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom—and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.
